Gospel Reading

John 10:1-10

A Special Message from Father MarioDear Brothers & Sisters in Christ:

We are all familiar with the image of Jesus as the Good Shepherd. But in today's reading from John's Gospel, Jesus first refers to himself as "the gate" through which the sheep come to safety. The thieves are those people who try to enter God's Kingdom by some other gate. The sheep are those who recognize Jesus as the only door to the green pasture of eternal and abundant life.

When a shepherd calls his own sheep, they follow him because they recognize his voice. Children learn to recognize the voices of their parents long before they are even able to speak. We all learn to associate voices with different people and even for different expressions from the same person. Most parents can tell by just the sound of their child's voice if they are happy or sad or frightened. We too recognize the voice of our Shepherd, Jesus Christ. As a disciple of Jesus, we are called to learn how to listen carefully. His voice comes to us often in the words of another, in prayer when we listen in silence and in reflective reading of the scriptures. However, unlike sheep that follow only their master's voice, we are bombarded by other voices that can lead us astray. Those voices can be very soothing and present us with options such as pleasure or riches or self-importance.

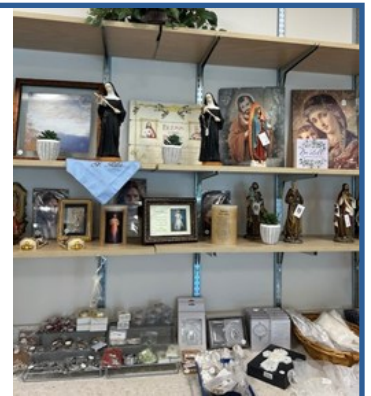

Our challenge today is to discern how we can live our lives in total dependency on God. Christ as our shepherd and Christ as the gate for the sheep who recognize his voice and follow him are rich in meaning. Whether we consider Christ as shepherd or gate, he is our guardian. Spend some time this week determining what you need to do to be more attentive to God's voice. What can you do to show Christ that you appreciate him and love him?
