Gospel Reading

Matthew 28:16-20

A Special Message from Father MarioDear Brothers & Sisters in Christ:

Today's Gospel Reading is the final event in Matthew's Gospel. The eleven disciples have returned to Galilee after receiving the good news of the Resurrection from Mary Magdalene. At their first sight of the risen Lord, the disciples still cannot shake off all their doubt. But when Jesus speaks, they recognize his voice and his message. They are to go, baptize, and teach. They are to invite all nations to become disciples of Jesus Christ.

Sometimes we may get the idea that this happened such a long time ago, and the "going, baptizing, and teaching" were for the apostles and not for us today. This couldn't be further from the truth. As members of the Body of Christ we are called to reach out to others, lend a helping hand, promote a friendly welcome and offer a listening ear. We can "baptize" others with our prayers, our love and our concern. We can teach the way of Jesus in the best way possible, which is by our example. Every follower of Jesus is an apostle in this way. And we can do this because of Jesus' promise when he says "I am with you always, until the end of time." This continuing, abiding presence of Jesus is a profound promise, and perhaps the most comforting promise in Scripture. I ask you to hold onto this promise of the Lord. Although at times, things may look dismal in your life, you can rejoice in the promise that Jesus will always be with us.

Thank you to all of the students, especially all those who received First Communion this year, for participating in our May Procession Crowning of our Blessed Mother. The children brought flowers to be placed at the foot of Mary. A special thank you goes to Macie Coates who was honored to crown our blessed Mother with beautiful roses.

O Blessed Mother Mary, we crowned you with love and honor . Guide us closer to your Son, Jesus, and help us live with kindness, humility, and faith. Protect our families, pray for our needs, and lead us always to heaven. Amen.
