Gospel Reading

John 6:51-58

A Special Message from Father MarioDear Brothers & Sisters in Christ:

Today's Gospel Reading takes place the day after Jesus has miraculously fed five thousand people with only five loaves and two fish. Now he wants the crowd to understand that he has come to give them "the living bread." Earthly bread, even manna, can only keep us alive for a time. It cannot give us eternal life. Only Jesus himself, the Bread of Life, can do that.

As Catholics, our greatest prayer of thanks is the Mass. Jesus is truly present in the Eucharist. When we receive Communion, we say "Amen;" that is, we believe that the bread and wine are now the Body and Blood of Christ. When we say, "Amen," we are confirming and supporting that Jesus, through the Body and Blood is as real today as when he walked this earth. Our "Amen" calls us to celebrate the joys of new life and our call to respond to the needs of others. When we say, "Amen" to the Body of Christ, we are affirming Jesus' being an intimate part of our lives and as such we uphold his command to love, a call to reach out beyond our comfort zone and bring about healing and justice in a troubled world. I ask you to spend some quiet time discerning how you will respond to the needs of your family and your community this week as you honor this gift he has given you and welcome his presence in you each and every day. No matter where we are and what each of us go through, Jesus is within us every step of the way giving us the strength, confidence and peace only he can offer.

We will not be celebrating the 5:00pm Sunday Mass during the months of June, July and August. The 5:00pm Sunday Mass will resume on Sunday, September 6th.
