Gospel Reading

Matthew 13:44-52

A Special Message from Father MarioDear Brothers & Sisters in Christ:

Today's Gospel of Matthew stacks one parable of the Kingdom of God on another. He wants Christians to understand that seeking, working, and praying for the Kingdom of God is the heart of Jesus' Good News. When we seek the Kingdom before all else, we are like a merchant who sells everything to buy a pearl of great price. Like Jesus, we value God's love and God's will above any earthy treasure.

In trying to get people to understand something as mystifying and overwhelming as the Kingdom of Heaven, Jesus used ordinary objects and everyday actions to help the people of his time understand the new life that comes with the Kingdom of Heaven. The Kingdom remains hidden until we make it our first priority and open ourselves to God's actions. It is the greatest treasure we can ever possess. But this does not come without action on our part. The Kingdom of God, the reign of love, justice and peace requires us to give up comparing ourselves to others and to judging of those around us. It calls us to embrace all others without judgement or discrimination. It calls us to place value on those around us rather than on materialistic objects. It calls us to promote harmony in our family, our parish and our community. This week, I ask you to spend some time in quiet prayer discerning how you can seek the Kingdom of God through your everyday actions and extend His Kingdom of love to those around you.
