Gospel Reading

Matthew 11:25-30

A Special Message from Father MarioDear Brothers & Sisters in Christ:

At the beginning of today's Gospel, we hear Jesus' hymn of praise to the Father. He is closer to the Father than anyone has ever been or ever will be. In fact, he is one with the Father. Jesus is both God and man. Jesus assures us that he is "meek and humble of heart." This meekness is not weakness, but the strength to accept us as we are, as well as the strength to help and save us. Jesus tells us that we are to be like him in this meekness and humility. This does not mean being a pushover. It means being patient and respectable to others, being a peacemaker, as Jesus was. It means accepting others as they are and trying to help them become even better.

We all experience failure, pain, loss and so many other burdens throughout our lives. However, all of these can and should be a part of our prayer and relationship with God. Only in honestly admitting our needs can we find the rest of our souls and the peace of God. As we strive to carry our own burdens with attitudes of humility and gentleness, pray for the grace to reach out to others. Now more than ever, we all need to practice peace and kindness not only with our words but with our actions. With so many people in our world feeling overburdened, I ask you to spend some time discerning how you can reach out with humility and meekness to help those in need. How can you lift others up and try to help them better their situation? Rest assured that if you come to Jesus with your concerns and burdens, you will find rest and peace in him.

PRAYER FOR OUR NATION

Father in Heaven, you chose Mary to be the mother of your Son and gave her to us to be our mother also. As we celebrate the 250th anniversary of independence of the United States, we ask Mary to protect and guide our country. May we, under her protection, be united with you and with one another. Strengthened by the gift of the Holy Spirit, help us to have a stronger faith, be filled with hope, and live in charity with all of our brothers and sisters. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

HELP DESPERATELY NEEDED IN VENEZUELA

The recent twin earthquakes that have devastated Venezuela have caused immense human suffering, leaving thousands of families mourning the loss of loved ones, displaced from their homes, and in urgent need of humanitarian assistance. As members of the Body of Christ, we are called to respond with generosity and compassion to our brothers and sisters in this time of great trial.

A special collection will be taken up this weekend with the proceeds being dedicated exclusively to emergency relief efforts for the people of Venezuela.

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

All of our parishes will take up a collection next weekend, July 11/12, to support Catholic Relief Services, which provides aid to vulnerable people affected by war, natural disasters, and exploitation.

Human trafficking is the exploitation of a person compelled through force, fraud, or coercion to provide work or service, regardless of nationality, citizenship or geographic location. Poverty, isolation from the support of family and friends, and cultural or language barriers are among the factors that place people at risk of trafficking. In light of these challenges, successful anti-trafficking efforts must involve communities that can recognize the signs of trafficking and provide direct assistance to victims. School teachers, parish staff and clergy, and health care providers at community clinics — with training to recognize the signs of human trafficking in their own communities — can be effective in combatting the exploitation of those they serve.

With funds received through the annual Catholic Relief Services collection, the Office of Migration and Refugee Services (MRS) of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops launched a pilot program to combat human trafficking in certain U.S. dioceses. Working with local partners, MRS staff assessed the challenges facing those communities, trained local leaders, and helped them establish networks to respond to the needs of victims.

Please prayerfully consider how you can support this 2026 collection. To learn more about the collection and the people who benefit, visit www.usccb.org/catholic-relief. Thank you again for all you do, prayerfully and financially, to help those burdened by poverty, famine, war, and natural catastrophes.

Assuring you and all those you love of my continued remembrance in the celebration of the Holy Eucharist, and commending you to the loving intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Queen of the Apostles, I remain

Sincerely yours in our Lord Jesus Christ,

Most Reverend Manuel de Jesús Rodríguez, J.C.D.
Bishop of Palm Beach
